Dear Congregation,

Lectio Divina: "divine reading," a traditional Christian practice that involves reading Scripture in a reflective and prayerful manner.

Visio Divina: "divine seeing," a similar practice as above, but using images or icons instead of words.

As many of you know, the Season of Lent is approaching very quickly. Ash Wednesday is February 18, 2026. During the roughly six weeks of Lent, many Christians are called to observe certain "disciplines" to bring themselves closer to Christ. Traditionally, people fast, meditate, pray, and forego certain items (like sweets or meats) to really put their faith into focus. Of course, the Holy Spirit leads and guides each of us on our journey in Lent. Each of us may take a slightly different pathway, but ultimately all of our spiritual steps in lent lead us to Holy Week and Easter.

Speaking with Laurie Fite, we formulated a plan to enable her to best complete the excellent Methodist Bible Study she has been teaching us on Wednesday evenings. Due to the weather-related cancellation, we are one week behind. Thus, the class will continue on Feb. 4 and 11 before Lent, and then, after Ash Wednesday (Feb. 18), finish on Feb. 25 and March 4. For the last 3 Wednesdays in Lent (March 11, 18, and 25), we will make this alteration in our Wonderful Wednesdays schedule:

6:00 - 6:30 PM: meet in sanctuary for guided Lenten Prayer (lectio & visio divina)

6:30 - 7:10 PM: dinner in the social hall (Adelaide will lead kids from 5-6:30 PM)

It is my hope that sitting in our peaceful, beautiful sanctuary and practicing the two methods of guided prayer on these dates before supper will help cleanse our hearts and attune us to the Spirit. "Be still and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted over the earth." (Psalm 46:10)

Blessings,
Rusty

GARY DODSON

NOSE DOD VAG

Gary Dodson is the proud father of 5 children, 7 grandchildren, and 10 great-grandchildren (and soon to be 1 great-great grandchild). A native of Greenville, South Carolina, he spent much time in the American Southwest and in the State of Florida in his working career. He retired from working at the age of 87. His favorite animal is the dog, especially the golden retriever. His hobbies include fishing, writing, and watching old movies. The author has a very strong faith in the Creator God who made all living creatures on this planet.
